Hi Amy:

There are no zoning-related objections to Mickey D's having a liquor license. The restaurant use at this location has existed for many years, formerly called The Golden West. And back when it was the Golden West, that restaurant had a small bar room.

The current plan does not appear to propose a separate bar room area, just the ability for people to order drinks with their meal. If the proprietors do plan to establish a bar room in the future, proper building permits will be required. Thanks.
