Zach Sakas, Esq. of Greenberg Traurig, outside counsel for the Superstition Vistas Community Facilities District No. 2 presented to the Board that the developer, Brookfield has changed their corporate structure and would like substitute the financial guarantor and indemnitor entity with two new entities, Brookfield Communities US Holdings LLC and North America Sekisui House, LLC. This requires a second amendment to the development agreement.

Boardmember Cross inquired if the new entity was an overseas parent company.

A representative from Brookfield stated they are a Japanese company that operates out of the United States.

Boardmember Heck asked if the homeowners are made aware of this change.

Mr. Sakas responded to Boardmember Heck.

District Attorney Joel Stern asked the Brookfield representative to state his name and to explain how they came to the decision to make this change.

Development Director Paul Lillis explained the process by which the entities were chosen.

District Manager Bryant Powell commented on the similar risk as it was with the previous agreement.

Mr. Stern asked if the new entities had sufficient funds to cover any kind of indemnification issue.

Mr. Sakas responded there are hundreds of millions of dollars available.

Mr. Lillis gave more information on the new entities.

Boardmember Cross inquired if there was a financial concern at any point with the change.

Mr. Sakas responded there was not.

Mr. Powell informed the Board that this will also be on the agenda for the City Council meeting later this evening.

Boardmember Nesser asked who was responsible if there is a funding issue in the future with this change.

Mr. Sakas responded to Boardmember Nesser.

Mr. Powell confirmed that the risk was the same as before for the community.

Mr. Stern asked how often the financials are checked.

Mr. Sakas stated the financials are checked regularly.
