Zach Sakas, Esq. of Greenberg Traurig outside counsel for the Superstition Vistas Community Facilities District No 2 presented to the Board Resolution No. SVCFD2 2026-010 approving the fiscal year 26-27 budget for CFD 2, with four sources of revenue. The first being property taxes for operation maintenance and administration, taxes for general obligation debt bond services, assessment installment payments for assessment bond debt service payments and developer cash contributions. Expenditures planned are general obligation bond debt service, assessment bond debt service and administration expense related to the district.

Resolution No. SVCFD2 2026-011 includes the target tax rate of $5.00 for general obligation bond debt service and $0.30 for operation and maintenance tax, consistent with prior years. Both districts may experience significant increases in assessed valuation as completed homes are added to the tax rolls, typically with an 18 to 24 month delay.

Boardmember Johnson had concerns about the budgets being available to the public.

City Manager Bryant Powell explained that the budgets are on the website, Boardmember Johnson said she was asking so the public was aware where they could find them.
