

Proclamation

SUPERSTITION COMMUNITY FOOD BANK DAY

July 8, 2023

- WHEREAS, we realize the human needs that must be met to maintain the dignity of all people and recognize that it is the responsibility of our more fortunate citizens to help provide the services to meet these needs; and
- WHEREAS, a wholesome community, attractive to residents, business and industry, is only possible when the valued elements of charity and public service are maintained; and
- WHEREAS, private agencies served by dedicated volunteers can meet the needs of people in a way that government cannot always serve; and
- WHEREAS, since 1983 the Superstition Community Food Bank has continuously worked with the community to address hunger related insecurities, and with the assistance of many volunteers has served hundreds of thousands during their 40 years of service by distributing millions of pounds of food; and
- WHEREAS, the Superstition Community Food Bank needs assistance from all of us in order to continue efforts in feeding the hungry;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Chip Wilson, Mayor of the City of Apache Junction, Arizona, do hereby proclaim July 8, 2023, as

“SUPERSTITION COMMUNITY FOOD BANK DAY”

Signed and attested to this 2 day of May, 2023.
