Thank you, Adrian. Just to clarify, we do not object to the approval of the liquor license, with the understanding that the construction, final inspections and granting of a certificate of occupancy must occur first. Thanks. – Rudy

Amy,

I wanted to provide you with an update regarding Dutchman's County BBQ. The business is still under construction and currently requires two additional inspections before it can obtain the final building inspection, as well as the required fire final inspection and zoning approval.

In light of this, I am reconsidering my approval to sign off on the Series 006 Bar liquor license application at this time.

Thank you for your understanding.

Best regards,

Adrian Alegria
