3. 26-62 Presentation and discussion on the applications submitted for Fiscal Year 2026-2027 funding.

Deputy City Clerk Amy Greening announced Board Liaison Evie McKinney will not be attending the meeting this evening. She also informed the Commission that Commissioner Wood has a conflict of interest with one of the applicants and will not be participating in the process.

Commission members discussed the 8 applications that were submitted for funding for Fiscal Year 2026-2027. The concerns they had included:

1. A New Leaf being a large non-profit, receiving funding from other sources and if granted any funding, will it go to Apache Junction residents.
2. Apache Junction Community Development Corporation - costs listed on application, specifically the amount to Parks and Recreation.
3. Azura VITA - confusion on the what the proposed project is, their total amount of projected grants, and the percentage of clients that are Apache Junction residents.
4. Black and Gold Youth Football League (BGYFL) - how they determine who will get the scholarships, want to be sure the recipients are Apache Junction residents, and how they split up the age groups for the teams.
5. Boys and Girls Club - fundraising events and other grants received, retention of students, and that the funding will go to employees working with Apache Junction residents.
6. Kiwanis - confusion on what the funding will go to/proposed project.
7. NAZCARE Inc - requesting funds for capital improvements and Commission members feel like the funding should not be used for this purpose.
8. Superstition Community Food Bank - funding from other cities, qualification process, seniors on the waiting list, size of food boxes per family, community partnerships and success of the holiday meal boxes.
