Additional Comments

4 year terms of service - city residents only

This board is established by state law and consists of five members - the mayor as board chair, two citizen members and two members from among the sworn public safety retirement system members of the Apache Junction Police Department. The two system members are selected by a vote of the members and confirmed by the council.

Stephen Kridler is currently on the Planning and Zoning Commission.

Interests & Experiences

What do you believe the key responsibility of board, commission or committee members to:
a) the city council and/or district, b) the citizens of Apache Junction, c) other board, commission or committee members?

Providing accurate information and reasonable resolutions so the council can make sound, informed decisions. Listening to concerns of all citizens to take all information into account when presenting to council. Being able to work together as a team and respecting and trying to understand others points of view.

Please state the reasons why you feel you are qualified to serve on this board, commission or committee:

After 22 years serving the public as a police officer, I have a unique point of view of things now that I'm a private citizen and I've worked with city administration on numerous projects over the years.

Please state why you would like to be appointed to this city/district board, commission or committee:

Retired from the city in 2010 and would like to be involved with community issues.
