Interests & Experiences

What do you believe the key responsibility of board & commission members to: a) the city council and/or district, b) the citizens of Apache Junction, c) other board, commission or committee members to be?

a) Support their function (fulfilling requests, providing recommendations, solutions, etc) b) Represent their interests (Implicitly - Adhering to the General Plan and existing governance. Explicitly - Processing input from hearings, meetings, forums, etc) c) "Teamwork" (mutual respect, learning, teaching, encouraging, etc)

Please state the reason(s) why you feel you are qualified to serve on this board/commission:

While I do not have any Planning and Zoning experience, I believe I possess the desirable personal attributes one would expect from someone who's had a successful 32+ year career as an engineer at Boeing. To mention a few of the less obvious, perhaps: Adaptable, diligent, personable ("for an engineer" I've been told, ;-)). I strive for excellence in everything I do. I am currently enrolled in Apache Junction Citizen Leadership Institute ("paused" due to COVID-19).

Please state why you would like to be appointed to this board/commission:

I moved out here from a California beach city which I thought had very poor Planning and Zoning. It would be an honor for me to be able to contribute to a future Apache Junction where I can "follow in the footsteps" and work along side of those who have allowed Apache Junction to grow but still retain the charm and beauty I fell in love with 30+ years ago when I first visited.

Interests & Experiences

What do you believe the key responsibility of board & commission members to: a) the city council and/or district, b) the citizens of Apache Junction, c) other board, commission or committee members to be?

One of the responsibilities of The Planning and Zoning commission is to make decision on zoning properties, I believe that it is important to be fair with residents when making these kinds of decisions and make sure that zoning decisions comply with state and federal law. The Planning and zoning commission does have a role in reviewing business license applications and zoning reviews. It is also not uncommon for residents to attempt to get a permit to build something on their property or request a variance which may require approval from The Planning and Zoning Commission. I personally believe that the main responsibility of a member of The Planning and Zoning Commission is to be fair with people and comply with the laws when making decisions.

Please state the reason(s) why you feel you are qualified to serve on this board/commission:

I am currently serving on 2 city boards at the moment. When I live in Texas I was licensed as a Real Estate Agent for a short time so I am familiar with the basics on how zoning works. In order to become licensed I was required to take 180 hours of training in 6 classes to include, Principles of Real Estate I, Principles of Real Estate II, Law of Contracts, Law of Agency, Real Estate Finance, and Promulgated Contract Forms. Currently this license is expired and I no longer reside in The State of Texas and currently reside in The State of Arizona.

Please state why you would like to be appointed to this board/commission:

As I mentioned before when I applied to serve on a few other commissions is that I am looking to serve the people in the community. I also have a strong passion for supporting small and local business and feel that small businesses are what drives the local economy. I also previously had a real estate license in The State of Texas so I am familiar with the basics on how zoning works.

Education and Community Service

Schools Attended and Degrees Earned:

Indiana University / BS 1973 MBA 1974

Civic Activities and Service Organizations/Office Held:

Plan Commission and Board of Zoning Appeals - Munster, IN 20+ years, Plan Commission - Mokena, IL 5+ years, various other organizations

Interests & Experiences

What do you believe the key responsibility of board & commission members to: a) the city council and/or district, b) the citizens of Apache Junction, c) other board, commission or committee members to be?

Munster and Mokena are established communities that are similar to the types of communities that Apache Junction is trying to transform into. Both had new developments and a lot of "fine tuning" activity. Some of the more interesting challenges were cell towers, billboards, and commercial / residential interfaces. The key to Planning is having a long term view of where the community is directed. For a developing community like Apache Junction, the long term is even more important, so the Planning group needs to have clear direction and understanding with the City Council. There is also an interesting proactive / reactive nature to the task because development only occurs when someone brings an idea to us - the city is not making the investment but needs to make sure that the investments being made are in the best interests of the long term development of the community. Consistency and ethical standards are the keys to success. Apache Junction is trying to change their development model for the future developments that are starting to occur. My experience is communities that were built in a consistent manner with this new direction should be useful.

Please state the reason(s) why you feel you are qualified to serve on this board/commission:

I have over 25 years experience on Plan Commissions where I had lead positions that required good working relationships with the other members of the commission, the City / Town Council, and the City / Town attorneys.

Please state why you would like to be appointed to this board/commission:

We moved to Arizona about 4 years ago to be closer to our son and grandchildren. I am completing the CLI class, which I have found to be very informative and enjoyable. It has been a good way to learn more about Apache Junction. I would like to bring my experience to a growing community.
