No                        0

Excused                1 -      Councilmember Biggs

City Manager Bryant shared that tonight is the final public hearing for consideration of approval of the budget and council can either accept or reduce the proposed budget at this time via Resolution No. 21-22.

Assistant City Manager Matt Busby stated that the tentative budget is posted online.

Mayor Wilson opened the public hearing.

Jeff Barlett, 108 N. Meridian Drive, thinks that the budget should be sent back to a work session and looked over. Public transportation needs to be addressed and public health care should be looked at. The city is doing a good job at public safety and thinks that the library and public parks are not essential. The road work done is excessive.

George Schroeder, 2444 W. Virginia Street, thinks that a good city council tells the managers what they want. Council needs to review the budget again. There is no money for the homeless. He says the public doesn't trust the council. There needs to be more money for code enforcement.

Vice Mayor Rizzi stated that the city must get their budget passed by a certain date and we cannot wait for the state to pass their budget.

Mayor Wilson closed the public hearing and asked for a motion.
