23-271 Presentation and discussion to prioritize art projects discussed at Special Meeting on April 23, 2023.

Dianne Cripe of Artspace 6, LLC presented and discussed the items from the special meeting of April 23, 2023, which included temporary and permanent art projects. Dianne also discussed the progress of the sculptures for the Dutchman Dog Park with a tentative installation date of early June.

Temporary projects discussed by the commission included:

- Construction barrier banners (City or builder?).
- Library mural (interior and exterior).
- Light pole banners (Public Works manages).
- Costs of murals ($15-$20 per SF).
- Theme of murals (reading, gaming, include in call to artist).

It was decided by the commission to gather more information before deciding on the next art project, including from the library, teen game room, banners on buildings such as the library, multi-gen, police department, fire and school districts, and Public Works. Director Esquivias to check with Public Works on procedure for hanging light pole banners.
